14 Karnataka rebel MLAs disqualified; trust vote today

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE Bengaluru, July 28

A DAY BEFORE the trust vote, Karnataka Assembly Speaker K R Ramesh Kumar on Sunday disqualified 11 Congress and three JD(S) rebel MLAs under the anti-defection law, thus ending their hopes of being inducted into the BJP government.

Another three Congress

MLAs had been disqualified for anti-party activities on July 25.

This effectively reduces the strength of the Assembly from 225 to 208 members (including a nominated Anglo Indian member). The BJP, which formed a one-man government headed by B S Yediyurappa on July 26 after the Congress-JD(S) government lost the trust vote, now has a clear majority of 105 legislators, apart from the support of one Independent MLA. The Congress strength is down to 67 and the JD(S) to 34; the House also has one BSP MLA. Yediyurappa, who was asked by Governor Vajubhai Vala to prove his majority, is expected to comfortably win the trust vote on Monday. "On fear, I have taken this decision," PTI quoted him as saying. "The way I am being pressurised mentally as Speaker to deal with all these things, I am pushed into a sea of depression," he said. "I have used my judicial conscience...I am 100% hurt". All the 17 MLAs who have been disqualified were associated with the rebellion against the Congress-JD(S) government headed by H D Kumaraswamy and were expecting to be inducted into the BJP cabinet They are now likely to move the Supreme Court against their disqualification.

The disqualification bars the legislators from contesting Assembly polls for the term of the current Assembly - 46 more months, unless mid-term polls are called — and also bars them from holding constitutional posts during this period.

"This is an undemocratic act carried out by the Speaker. We will approach the Supreme Court and fight this out," said Prathapgouda Patil.

A PTI report quoted JD(S) rebel Vishwanath A H as saying that the decision was "against the law", and they would all approach the Supreme Court for
